LEGEND

Explanation of the materials

At Decoded we use different types of Leather. Below you'll find the icons and explanation for each type of leather and accessories.

FULL GRAIN LEATHER

Our full grain leather is a natural product, it may contain some growth marks and natural characteristics. Such signs show the premium quality and authenticity of the leather.

WAXED LEATHER

Waxed leather is used to create the distinct appearance of this product. This leather is coloured with aniline dyes that are sealed using natural waxes. The waxed leather may transfer colour on other articles and may discolour when stretched or get These are unique characteristics and will not be considered as
